DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-3 in the reply filed on 11/27/2007 is acknowledged.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to because reference signs "1a" and "1c" in Fig. 9 should be written as "12a" and "12c". Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over et al. in view of Regarding claims 1 and 2, Yuji (JP 2001-218429) discloses A permanent-magnet synchronous motor (Figs. 1-3) comprising a stator core having Z (Z is a natural number) slots (12 slot in Fig. 3), on which a coil is arranged; a rotor (4) having permanent magnets (6) with  $2xp$  (p is a natural number) poles and inserted into a torus of the stator core; and a pressurizing part (8 as described in paragraph 012 of translation) that pressurizes an outer periphery of the stator core inward in N locations (12 locations as shown in Fig. 3). Yuji fails to show N being any one of positive (minimum as in claim 2) of values calculated from  $N = p$ ,  $N = \pm 2xp - Zxil$  (il is an integer and at least 0), and  $N = \pm Z(il \pm 2)p$ .

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the stator core having a pressurizing part that pressurizes an outer periphery of the stator core inward in N locations (12 locations as shown in Fig. 3). Yuji fails to show N being any one of positive (minimum as in claim 2) of values calculated from  $N = p$ ,  $N = \pm 2xp - Zxil$  (il is an integer and at least 0), and  $N = \pm Z(il \pm 2)p$ , since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Regarding claim 3, Yuji also show the permanent-magnet synchronous motor wherein the pressurizing part comprises a frame that fixes the stator core and rotatably supports one end of the rotor.
